RISKS, HAZARDS, AND DANGERS

The following describes some, but not all of said Risks, Hazards, and Dangers.

- The propensity of the riding and pack animals to behave in ways that may result in injury, harm, or death to persons on or around them.
- The unpredictable of the animals' reaction to such things as sounds, sudden movement, and unfamiliar objects, persons, or other animals.
- Certain hazards such as surface and sub-surface conditions.
- Collision with other animals or objects.
- The potential of the participant to act in a negligent manner that may contribute to injury to the participant or others.
- Encounters with variations within the terrain; including creeks, water, bridges, traveled roads, stumps, forest growth, debris, rocks, cliffs, and other obstacles whether they are obvious or not obvious, man-made or natural.
- Hiking in rugged country.
- Encounters with wildlife and insects.
- Temperature extremes.
- Adverse unpredictable weather conditions.
- The unavailability of immediate professional (EMTs, MDs) medical attention in the wilderness area.
